- School holiday activities.

What is on

Join us for Burramatta NAIDOC

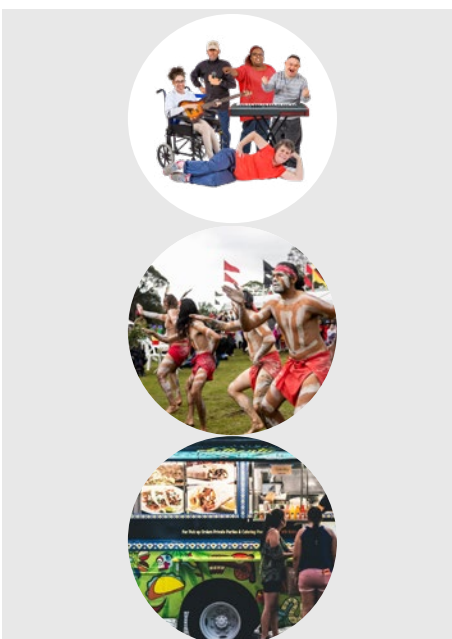

Burramatta is a free outdoor festival for NAIDOC week.

NAIDOC week is all about First Nations people sharing their traditions.

Join us for Burramatta at Parramatta Park on Saturday 12 July.

The free festival will have

- Music
- Dance
- Good food.

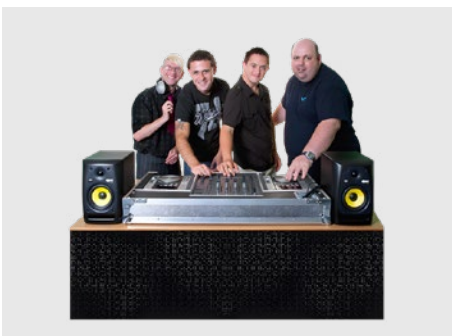

Make Music Day

We will have a big music day on Saturday 21 June.

Hip Hop artist Solly from Sydney will be at Parramatta Square.

There will also be different DJs at the Crown.

All music events are free.

National Tree Day

We will do a National Tree Day together with Planet Ark.

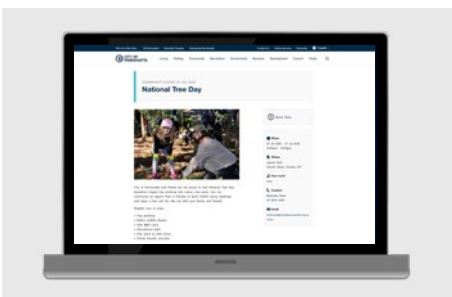

We will plant new trees and learn how to look after plants.

Join us on Sunday 27 July at Upjohn Park in Dundas.

Please sign up for free if you want to come.

To sign up go to www.cityofparramatta.nsw.gov.au/events/national-tree-day

Enjoy the races

There will be lots of horse races at Rosehill Gardens from 14 June to 31 August.

At the races you can have cocktails at the Hive bar.

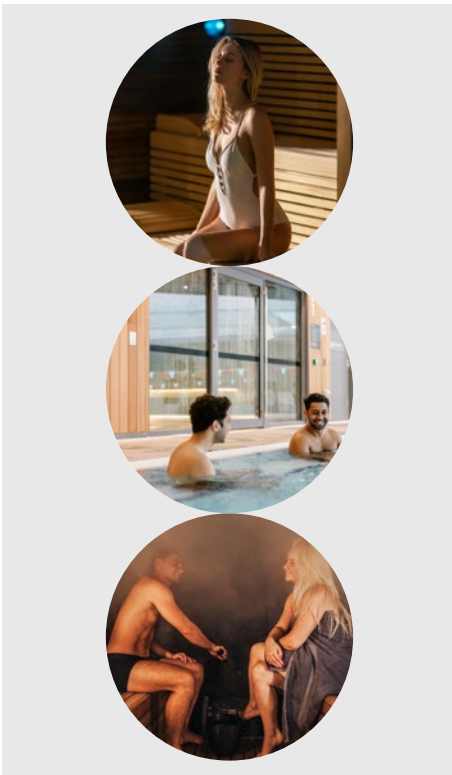

There is also the Winning Post Restaurant where you can have a long winter lunch.

Winter school holidays

Stay warm at Parramatta Aquatic Centre

Parramatta Aquatic Centre has heated pools so you can swim in winter.

To relax and warm up you can also use our

- Sauna
- Spa
- Steam room.

We also have a large indoor pool and splash area for the kids.

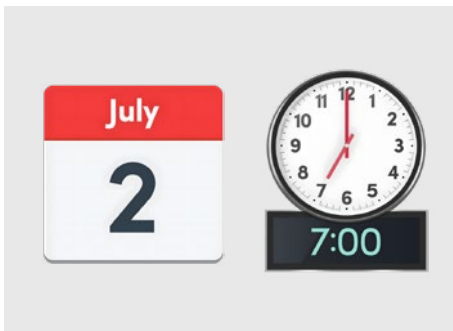

Active Parramatta Holiday program

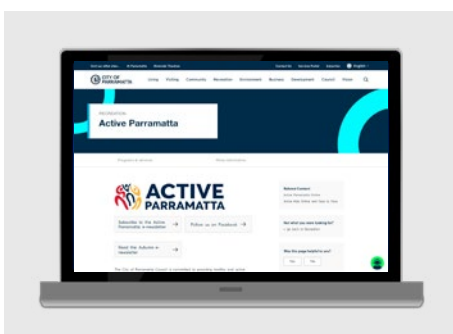

The new program for the winter school holidays is almost ready.

We will have lots of free sports and other fun activities for school kids.

The new program comes out on 2 July at 7pm.
